HIGHLIGHTS of Game: Hart 4 vs Bishop Amat 11 Game 2 of Double Header

Hart lost it's first double header since they dropped 2 at El Dorado of Orange County Placentia in 1997. The scores were 9-5 and 11-4. Defending Division 4 Champion Bishop Amat which in the past was always permitted to move up to Division 1, and won regularly, is no longer allowed to move up due to a Southern Section rule change. So now annually wins the Division 4 Championship.

In the 2nd game, Hart pitcher J.P. Slauenwhite gave up 2 runs on a double in the 2nd by Anthony Hidalgo. Hart was pretty much stimied by Bishop Amat pitcher Andrew Soto, but managed to scratch out a run on a infield single by Jason Brown, who took 2nd on a ground out by Chris Giordano, and came home on a single to right by Craig Cohen.

Slauenwhite got the 1st out in the 5th and then issued a walk. With the score 2-1 Kyle Boggio issued a walk, then got a strikeout. It looked like the inning was over when an easy grounder to short was fielded cleanly, an error at 2nd on the fource play loaded the bases. Hidalgo followed with a single to center scoring 2 runs, and after a walk his brother Kaulin Boggio relieved. Another single scored the 3rd run of the inning.

Bishop Amat broke the game open in the 6th when Alex Ramos hit a 3 run homer to right to make the score 8-1.

Hart made some noise in the bottom of the 6th when Soto opened by walking Cohen and Chris Steck. After a fielders choice out, Andy Sevanian singled. Then the Amat fielders started making errors. 3 errors and a sacrifice fly by Ian Feldman and Hart picked up 3 runs to make the score 8-4.

In the 7th however, Bishop Amat scored 3 more runs on 4 walks, a hit batter, and a sacrifice fly before Jeff Icenogle came in to put out the fire to make it 11-4.

Hidalgo came in to pitch the 7th for Amat, and Hart put the 1st 2 batters on with a walk to Brown, & a sharp single to left by Giordano, but the next 3 batters struck out. Hart managed only 6 hits in the game.

Hart next plays Tuesday at at Canyon. Left handed pitcher Jake Coash pitched yesterday (Friday) and won a complete game 5-0 shutout over Valencia. It is not certain that he will start against Hart on Tuesday after going a full 7, however he was the only pitcher to beat Hart last year during the regular season, so one would expect to see him for a few innings.

A Hart TEAM Record was tied when Hart used 5 pitchers in the 2nd game. (J.P. Slauenwhite, Kyle and Kaulin Boggio, Ryan Ozella, and Jeff Icenogle). On May 10, 1996 in the last regular game of the season Burbank gave Hart a scare and used Bob Potruch, Jason Westemeier, Jeremy Shields, Brian Hernandez and Bobby Graves before defeating the Bulldogs 8-5 at Burbank.

Hart next plays Tuesday at Canyon. Left handed pitcher Jake Coash pitched yesterday (Friday) and won a complete game 5-0 shutout over Valencia. It is not certain that he will start against Hart on Tuesday after going a full 7, however he was the only pitcher to beat Hart last year during the regular season, so one would expect to see him for a few innings.

Hart will be playing in the up comming Villa Park Tournament starting on March 30, 2002
