HIGHLIGHTS of Game 02-17: Hart 6 - Valencia 8 (Foothill League)

G#02-17 Hart blows 6-1 lead to Valencia again: final 8-6

First a quick update on the pros in the minors and their team assignments:

Bobby Graves - AA Eastern League: Erie Sea Wolves (Detroit Tigers)
J.T. Stotts - A California League: Visalia Oaks (Oakland A's)
Brian Baron - AA Eastern League: New Britain Rock Cats (Minnesota Twins)
Chris Baker - AAA International League: Syracuse SkyChiefs (Toronto Blue Jays)
Andrew Lorraine - AAA International League: Indianapolis (Milwaukee Brewers)
Jamie Shields: - Disabled List (Tampa Bay Devil Rays).

First off once again the umpires were late, or rather the plate umpire was not there at game time. So the base umpire had to go change into his gear, and the game started almost 1/2 hour late. The other ump finally made it in the 3rd, and perhaps it would have been better if he never showed up at all.

This game started out like I was going to be able to write about Hart avenging a last inning loss on 3/22/02 when Valencia scored 3 runs in the top of the 7th to beat Hart 7-6 for their 1st win in 19 meetings.

Hart jumped out to a 6-1 lead after 2 1/2 innings. They got 2 in the 1st on 4 singles by Chris Valaika, Jason Brown, Mike Alvarado and Chris Steck, with RBI's going to Alvarado and Steck. In the 2nd they picked up 3 more. John Curtis opened with a long homer to right his 3rd of the season. At that point Valencia changed pitchers replacing lefty Jeff Braun with lefty Jon Porter. Danny Williams walked, and Chris Valaika was safe on a fielders choice grounder when the shortstop failed to touch second attempting to force Williams. Both runners moved to 2nd and 3rd on a wild pitch and Williams scored on a grounder to short by Brown. When Chris Giordano singled to center scoring Valaika making it 5-1 it looked good for Hart. Craig Cohen then hit a sharp liner that saw caught by the 2nd baseman, and Giordano was doubled off 1st.

J.P. Slauenwhite started for Hart and after 2 out in the 1st gave up a single and a walk but escaped with no damage.

In the 2nd, 2 singles and a walk loaded the bases, and JP then walked Jimmy Rohan to force in a run, but got out of the inning on a grounder to 3rd by Matt Aidem.

Hart scored another in the 3rd to make it 6-1. Alvarado walked and was forced at 2nd by Andy Sevanian. Curtis walked, and Danny Williams singled in Sevanian. After Valaika walked Porter was able to get out of the inning.

In the bottom of the 3rd sophomore Jared Clark led off with a homer left. J.P. got the next 3 batters, and after both teams went 3 up 3 down in the 4th, Hart took a 6-2 lead to the 5th.

Steck singled and took 2nd on an error by the shortstop. After 1 out John Curtis hit a long double to left center, but Steck thinking the centerfielder had a chance to make the catch was only able to advance to 3rd. After a great play by the short stop to get the 2nd out on Williams and holding the runners at 2nd and 3rd, Valencia then walked Chris Valaika intentionally loading the bases. They then got out of the inning with a strikeout. So now unable to score a runner from 2nd on a double and leaving the bases loaded, the Hart faithful started to feel like they were really hanging on.

J.P. took a 6-2 lead into the 5th, and the leadoff batter Jimmy Rohan socked a low line drive homer over the left centerfield wall to make it 6-3. J.P. then got 2 quick outs, but then gave up his 3rd homer of the game to Jon Porter, also a low line drive over the left center field wall. After walking Richard Cadena, and giving up a single to pinch hitter Brett Erickson, coach Ozella removed J.P. Slauenwhite and brought in Chad Smith. Smith immediately walked Wes Pascolla to load the bases, but struck out Danny Worth to end the inning with Hart leading now only 6-4.

In the Hart 6th, Valencia brought in the 3rd straight left hander Garrett Riech, who was greeted by a hit by Chris Giordano that almost knocked Riech out of the game. Giordano was caught stealing, and after a strikeout made it 2 out, Hart tried to start a rally again, when Mike Alvarado singled, and made it to 3rd when the 3rd baseman threw Steck's grounder over 3rd putting runners on 2nd and 3rd. Andy Sevanian hit a shot to center hauled in at the wall, and ending the inning.

Smith was greeted by a single to deep short by Patrick O'Sullivan, and a single to center by Rohan. Jeff Icenogle was brought in to try and put out the fire. Facing Matt Aidem he unleashed a wild pitch to move the runners to 2nd and 3rd. Aidem grounded to 2nd and the ball was muffed, O'Sullivan scoring to make it 6-5 and all runners were safe at 1st and 3rd.

Clark doubled of the left center field wall scoring Rohan to tie it 6-6. Jon Porter walked, after a fielders choice and a strikeout, Wes Pascolla walked scoring Clark to make it 7-6. Pinch hitter Dan Goodman then twisted the dagger singling in Porter and Hart was down by the eventual final score of 8-6.

John Curtis opened the top of the 7th with a long single. Danny Williams flied very deep to center but then Curtis was erased in a game ending double play.

Final Score Valencia 8, Hart 6. Valencia is now 14-3 (4-2 in the Foothill League).

Hart is now 9-7-1 (3-2-1 in the Foothill League)
