HIGHLIGHTS of Game 04-01: Hart 7 - Peninsula 6 (Westside Tourney Game)

Hart opens season with a 7-6 win over Peninsula in a thriller:

The 2004 season started today (Friday, March 5 - 2004). With 2 out in the bottom of the 7th inning, Kevin Baker who had made 2 errors in earlier innings to enable the Peninsula Panthers to stay in the game and then draw even made up for it with a sharp single to left to drive in Ryan Pettersen with the winning run for Hart to win 7-6.

Pettersen opened the 7th with a pop single to center. Matt Valaika moved him to 2nd with a perfect sacrifice bunt, and then Baker lined the single to left. The left fielder charged the ball and came up with it cleanly and had a shot at getting Petterson, but his throw was high and sailed over leaping catcher Brett Mendoza's glove. Hart has won 17 out of 18 Opening season games. Only losing to Notre Dame 6-5 in 1995.

Steve Sanchez started for Hart and put Peninsula down 1-2-3 with 1 strikeout.

Tyler Waddell (probably no relation to the great Hall of Famer Rube Waddell) started for Peninsula.

Hart started out in the first inning with 2 runs. Cole Valancius singled to 3rd and Tyler Fick hit his first career homer to right.

The Panthers evened the score at 2-2 in the 2nd on a walk, Bakers first error and a balk to put runners at 2nd and 3rd. They then scored on a ground out and a sacrifice fly. Both runs were un-earned.

In the 2nd with 2 out, Hart got 5 straight singles by Matt Valaika, Matt Sreden, Kevin Baker, Valancius and Steve Susdorf for 2 more runs to make it 4-2 Hart.

Sanchez gave up a run in the 3rd. A single, flyout and another single put men on 1st and 3rd and another sacrifice fly made it 4-3 Hart.

In the Hart 3rd, Peninsula brought in another pitcher named Mo Wilhelm (Probably no relation to the great Hall of fame pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm).

Shane Carlson leading off the 3rd greeted him with a "no doubt about it" homer to left if first of his career. Nate Maddox walked and Pettersen bunted safely. Matt Valaika doubled to left center scoring Maddox to make the Hart lead 6-3. With men on 2nd and 3rd and NO out it looked like Hart was going to blow the game open.

Sreden and Baker hit the ball sharply but the Panthers made good fielding plays preventing a score. Valancius was hit by pitch to load the bases, and Susdorf hit the ball hard but was out. What looked like a promising inning came to and end but Hart did lead 6-3.

Peninsula got 2 hits in the 4th but Sanchez got out of the inning unscathed.

In the Hart 4th. Fick walked but was picked off first. Carlson was hit by pitch and Pettersen was safe on an error but a ground out and pop up ended the Hart scoring chance, and Mo Wilhelm was starting to get in a good pitching rythum.

In the 5th Sanchez gave up a sharp double to Mendoza and line single by Andy Beal to make it Hart 6-4. That was it for Steve Sanchez. Josue Iniquez came in to pitch for Hart. A wild pitch put Beal on 2nd. He then scored on an error second baseman Baker on a grounder by John Prunckle, who took 2nd on the overthrow at first. A ground out moved Prunckle to 3rd where he scored on another wild pitch to tie up the game. Score 6-6. Hart went down quietly with only a walk in their half of the 5th.

Josue gave up a leadoff bunt single by Kurt Steinhauer but got out of the inning on a great catch of a pop fly in foul territory down the left field line by Shane Carlson. Hart went out meekly in the 6th, 3 up 3 down. Score still 6-6

In the top of the 7th Peninsula started to get something going against Josue Iniquez and Hart. Leadoff batter Beal struck out, but Prunckle singled to 3rd and took 2nd on a bad throw to first. Tyler Waddell then singled sharply to left and Hart left fielder Cole Valancius saved Hart with a perfect throw to the plate to nail Eric Destatoff who was running for Prunckle.

Josue then got Sal Ferrera to fly to left.

As mentioned above, Hart finally broke through in the bottom of the 7th with 2 out to beat Wilhelm and the Peninsula Panthers on the bats of Ryan Pettersen, Matt Valaika and Kevin Baker.

Hart had 12 hits, 10 of the in the first 3 innings and then their bats fell silent until the 7th.

Peninsula plays in the same Division as Hart.(Division 2) They are in the Bay League are rated # 22 in the LA Times top 25 Poll.

The win was the 359th for Hart since 1987.

Hart plays Moorpark at Moorpark tomorrow (Saturday 3-6-04) at 11am in the 2nd round in Pool #2 of the Westside Tournament.

Hart next plays at home in the 3rd game in Pool #2 on Tuesday 3-9-04 at 3pm against Camarillo.
