HIGHLIGHTS of Game 04-02: Hart 5 - Moorpark 7 (Westside Tourney Game)

Hart can't hold lead: Sun double wins it for Moorpark

Hart had a shaky start today at/against the Moorpark Musketeers on a bright and sunny day.

In the Hart 1st, a 1 out walk to Cole Valancius was wiped out in a double play. Tyler Lyon started for Hart. He walked the 1st batter who was then out stealing. Then a Walk, Error, and another walk loaded the bases. A sacrifice fly scored a run but Tyler got the final out on a deep fly to left. MP led 1-0.

Hart tied it 1-1 when Tyler Fick open the 2nd with a booming double. Shane Carlson sacrificed Fick to 3rd. Nate Maddox grounded to shortstop who bobbed and threw high to 1st. The first baseman somehow injured himself trying to tag a sliding Maddox. Meanwhile Fick scored. The 1st baseman (Billy Butler) was able to stay in the game. Another double play ended the inning.

In the Moorpark 2nd they again went at Tyler Lyon. Billy Butler led off and was hit by pitch, then stole 2nd, took 3rd on a wild pitch. After a strikeout, Butler scored on a single by Troy Loehr. Loehr took 2nd on an infield single, 3rd on another wild pitch, and scored on an error.

Down 3-1 in the 3rd, Hart got things going against Moorpark pitcher Drew Dowl. With 2 out, Kevin Baker walked, Cole Valancius walked and Steve Susdorf drove them both in with a double to left center. Tyler Fick drove in Susdorf with a double to the left field wall. Shane Carlson walked and Nate Maddox singled to center scoring Fick and sending Carlson to 3rd. The inning ended when Maddox was picked off first. But now Hart led 5-3.

In the Moorpark 3rd, after a ground out Justin Bogoyevac hit a drive off the right field wall, but a good fielding play by Matt Valaika held him to a single. He was then erased when Billy Butler lined into a double play to Hart second baseman Kevin Baker.

In the Hart 4th Matt Valaika bunted for a base hit and was successful. It reminded those who watched last years team of the problems the 2003 team had with many unsuccessful bunts. This years team has been almost perfect on sacrifices and attempts for base hits. Hart couldn't capitalize however, but still led 5-3.

In the Moorpark 4th Tyler Lyon put them down 1, 2, 3 with a strikeout.

In the Hart 5th after a strikeout, Steve Susdorf singled to center and stole 2nd, but another strikeout and fly to center, ended it. Hart 5-3.

In the Moorpark 5th after a ground out, a sharp single to center by Jason Breckley and a wild pitch put him at 2nd base. After a pop up another sharp single to center by Nick Dingman plated Breckley. Hart pitching coach Roland de la Maza replaced Lyon with Josue Iniguez. Josue got the 3rd out but the Hart lead was shaved to 5-4.

In the Hart 6th, Moorpark replaced pitcher Drew Dowl with the DH Tyler Randall. With 1 out Hart first baseman Robert Van Scoyoc walked. After a ground out put Van Scoyoc on 3rd, Pat Sarkissian was hit by pitch to put 2 runners on. The inning ended on a strikeout. Hart 5-4.

In the Moorpark 6th, the pesky Billy Butler led off and was hit by pitch again. This brought in the Hart DH Tyler Fick to relieve Josue Iniguez. A sacrifice bunt by pinch hitter Tyler Ziegler failed as Butler was forced at 2nd. A pop up kept Ziegler on 1st with 2 out.

A single to center by Ryne Intlekofer put Zeigler on 2nd. Tyler Fick got 2 quick strikes on Cory Swenson but on the next pitch both runners moved up on a passed ball. Swenson finally coaxed a walk loading the bases bringing up right hand power hitter Jason Breckley. After several pitches, it looked like Fick was going to be out of the inning when Breckley hit a towering fly that looked like right fielder Matt Valaika would have a bead on it. But the ball kept carrying, and the beautiful sunny day worked in Moorpark's favor as it was obvious the Matt had lost the ball in the sun. By the time he got the ball back to the infield Breckley was on 2nd and 3 runs were in. Moorpark had turned the game around from a 5-4 loss to a 7-5 lead. Catcher Cody Dee popped to 3rd to end the inning but the damage was pretty much done. Score Moorpark 7-5.

Hart went quickly in the top of the 7th with a fly to right by Valancius. Steve Susdorf lined out on a diving play by the 3rd baseman taking a double away. Tyler Fick then hit one to the deepest part of center field in this spacious field, and Hart suffered its first loss of the season.

Hart played Moorpark in the opening game (at MP) in 2001 and beat them 3-0. Hart went on to win their next 18 games before losing to Canyon. They wound up 26-2 that season. Hart is now 1-1 on the 2004 season and 1-1 overall against Moorpark.

Hart's next game is at home in the 3rd game in the Westside Tourney Pool #2 on Tuesday 3-9-04 at 3pm against Camarillo. Hart played Camarillo a week ago in a scrimmage at Hart and won 4-3.

Camarillo won the SS-Div. 1 Championship in 2002, but lost most of it's stars to graduation from the last 2 years, particularly Delmon Young who was drafted # 1 in the Nation by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Last year Young injured his ankle playing basketball just before the season started and missed the 1st 5 games. When he got back they won their next 21 games. They were seeded # 2 in the Div. 1 playoffs but lost to Arlington 7-4 in the 2nd Round. This year,

Camarillo's best pitcher Kevin Komatsu injured his shoulder requiring surgery and is out for the season.
