HIGHLIGHTS of Game 04-15: Hart 4 - El Modena 11 (OC Caliber Motors Touney)

Pool Play 3rd games Tuesday 4-6-2004

Temecula Valley 5, Canyon Springs 1 NO Hitter, Joe Spiers Stat Record hitting streak ends at 46 games.

The longest hitting streak in state high school baseball history came to an end Tuesday, but it took a near-perfect performance to put it to rest.

Temecula Valley sophomore Tyler Engler-Gaston (1-1) earned his first varsity win by throwing a no-hitter to beat Moreno Valley Canyon Springs, 5-1, in a pool-play game at El Modena. Engler-Gaston walked one and did not strike out a batter, conceding only an unearned run. The Golden Bears (6-9-1) committed two errors.

Joe Spiers, who had a double and single on Monday against Newhall Hart to extend his hitting streak to 46 consecutive games, went hitless in three at-bats on Tuesday for Canyon Springs (11-4), ranked No. 15 in the Southland by The LA Times.

He reached base in his second plate appearance when third baseman Danny Morrow threw the ball away after fielding a hard-hit grounder. Morrow atoned by snagging a line drive off Spiers' bat to retire the Hawaii-bound senior in his final at-bat.

The last time Spiers was held hitless was in his sophomore season in 2002, when he was playing for Temecula Valley. Brandon Butcher had two hits, including a home run, for the Golden Bears.

Hart 4 El Modena 11. Hart never in this one.

Hart and El Modena wound up with 2-1 records, but ElMo wins the pool play as they won the Head to head game.

Jason Mitchell (1-2) pitched a complete game, Cole Hathcock went two for three with four RBIs and Bubba Ruddy went two for three with two runs scored, two RBIs and one double for host El Modena (6-9). Cole Valancius went three for four, with one RBI for Hart (8-7).

Today Hart played the 3rd game of Pool Play in the Anaheim Canyon Caliber Motors Orange County Select Tournament against El Modena at El Modena High.

As you can see from above the exciting game was in the 11am game where Joe Spiers had his streak ended as the Temecula Valley pitcher threw a no hitter.

I can't (actually I don't want to) tell you much about the Hart game. They lost 11-4, and going into the 7th were losing 11-1.

Cole Valancius was 3 for 4, but was picked off base twice. Hart had 8 hits and got 4 of them in the 7th when they picked up 3 runs.

ElMo starter Jason Mitchell who beat Hart last year in the Villa Park tourney was cruising with a 11-1 lead and was going for a complete game.

In the 7th:

Ryan Pettersen pinch hit for Tyler Fick and lined a sharp single to right. Shane Carlson blistered a liner snagged by the 3rd baseman. Pat Sarkissian pinch hit for Robert Van Scoyoc and singled sharply to left, sending Pettersen to 2nd. Nate Maddox hit a long double to deep left scoring Pettersen, Sarkissian took 3rd. Ben Edwards lined a single to left scoring Sarkissian, Maddox took 3rd. Kevin Baker hit a sacrifice fly to deep center scoring Maddox. The game ended when Cole Valancius trying for a perfect day flew out to right.

Hart got their other run in the 3rd. With 1 out Ben Edwards walked, took 3rd on a double by Matt Valaika over the right fielders head, and scored on a single by Cole Valancius.

Steve Burton started for Hart, got a ground out then a strikeout, but then got wild. Before the inning ended he gave up 2 walks, 2 singles, a stolen base, 2 wild pitches and a run scoring Balk. ElMo led 3-0 and it was down hill from then on.

In the 2nd Burton hit a batter, gave up a single and a walk. Burton was relieved by Josue Iniguez who gave up a Sacrifice fly before getting a strike out to end the inning but ElMo had 2 more runs, and a 5-0 lead.

Josue gave up 2 runs in the 3rd, 1 on the 4th, and 3 in the 6th. He finally got 3 up and 3 down in the 6th, when ElMo sent up 3 pinch hitters.

Only good thing about today. I printed up stats to be passed out today, and forgot to bring them with me. The last time I did that was in 1999 when we were in the Anaheim Lions tournament also down in Orange County. That year we went all the way to win the Div 2 CIF-SS Championship. So forgetting the Stats could wind up to be a good Omen.
