Because the 1st game ended very quickly everyone scampered to their cars and going against rush hour traffic on the 405 made it quickly to Birmingham high. Unfortunately the umpires decided to stop for dinner, so the game started only an hour earlier than was hoped for.

In the 2nd game, Derek Sedam started for Hart. Derek pitched 4 very good innings. He gave up 2 runs in the 1st and 2nd. In both innings a runner scored on a balk and then he got the batter out on the next pitch to end the inning.

Hart got on the board in the 3rd.

Pat Sarkissian singled to right. Tyler Fick walked. Brian Charnock sacrificed and beat out the bunt loading the bases. Donny Williams was hit by pitch scoring Sarkissian. Andrew Briggs beat out a squibber to the pitcher scoring Fick. Chris Manent hit into a double play scoring Charnock. After 2 innings, Hart had cut the lead to 4-3.

Sedam was in trouble in the 3rd giving up 2 straight singles but got a hard lineout to center and then got a nifty 6U-6-3 double play.

He pitched a good 4th, and Hart was still in the game.

West Torrance brought in a new pitcher to start the 4th named Mark Oslund, and for the next 3 innings struck out 6 Hart batters, only allowing a infield single by Brian Charnock.

Jason Rehhaut relieved Sedam in the 5th and had a 3 up 3 down inning with 1 strikeout in the 5th.

He got the 1st out in the 6th on a great play by Andrew Briggs at 3rd base. Then, Rehhaut gave up a double, walk and wild pitch. With 2 out, both runners scored on a single by James Hess who was 2 for 2 and 2 hit buy pitch in the game.

In the 7th, Nick Streit came in to pitch for Hart and gave up another run on 3 straight singles to West Torrance.

With Mark Oslund pitching the way he was since the 4th inning, it looked a bit for hopeless for Hart as they came to bat in the bottom of the 7th down 7-3.

Andrew Briggs was hit by pitch.

Kevin Baker pinch hit for Chris Manent and walked.

Matt Valaika was hit by pitch loading the bases.

Shane Carlson came to bat, and West Torrance relieved Oslund for Mike Mehegan who had a .000 ERA for 4 innings pitched.

Carlson belted a ball that just missed clearing the left center field wall, but it cleared the bases. Carlson was at 2nd with a double and was the tying run with none out.

Ryan Gagnon sacrificed but the pitcher was on it right away, Carlson holding, but then the pitcher dropped the ball, Gagnon was safe on the error.

Mehegan then unleashed a wild pitch, Carlson and Gagnon moved to 2nd and 3rd.

Pat Sarkissian hit a sharp single to left scoring Carlson to tie the game 7-7 and Gagnon was at 3rd.

Matt Sreden pinch hit for Tyler Fick.

On the first pitch Mehegan let go of another wild pitch and Ryan Gagnon slid home with the winning run and an improbable victory for Hart.

Hart was outhit 10-7 but the payoff is the runs on the scoreboard which showed Hart 8 West Torrance 7.

Last year using the same Venues, Hart lost both ends of the double header to West Torrance 6-5 and 5-4.

West Torrance is ahead on the Head to Head competition 3-2 having won a Quarter Final game against Hart in 10 innings 13-10 in 1997 at West Torrance.

This is a Copy Paste of what the LA Times reporter had on the game:

Hart 8, West Torrance 7

Ryan Gagnon scored the game-winning run on a wild pitch to cap a wild seventh inning in which Hart (8-1-1) scored five runs on two hits before an out was recorded and the Indians rallied to beat West Torrance (6-3-0) at Birmingham High in the second game of a split-venue doubleheader.

Hart, ranked No. 10 by The Times, benefited from two hit-by-pitches, an error, a walk and two wild pitches after entering the seventh with a 7-3 deficit.

Shane Carlson hit a three-run double to bring the score to 7-6 and he came home to tie the score at 7-7 on a base hit by Pat Sarkissian.

Gagnon reached on an error, advanced to second on a wild pitch and moved to third on Sarkissian's single before scoring the decisive run.

Hart pitcher Nick Streit got the victory despite giving up a run in his only inning of play.

The late surge by Hart spoiled a strong performance by West Torrance reliever Mark Oslund, who came on in the fourth inning and struck out two batters each in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings and allowed just one hit in that span. He left after loading the bases in the seventh.

James Hass was two for two, drove in two and scored twice for West Torrance, which led 4-0 after two innings, thanks in part to two runs scored on balks.

Hart's next game will be on Saturday 4/2/05 at 12 Noon at Canyon of Anaheim against Canyon Springs of Moreno Valley in the opener of the Caliber Motors Orange County Select Easter Tournament.
