HIGHLIGHTS of Game# 08-18: Hart 1, Valencia 0 (Foothill League Game # 8)

Hart gets "BIG" Win 1-0 vs Valencia:

Hart in a "must win" game, won its biggest game of the season against the CIF-SS # 8 rated Valencia Vikings. Hart which this Monday was just awarded the # 9 Ranking in the CIF-SS Coaches Poll showed they deserved this ranking today on the Vikings home diamond with the 1-0 win. See Division 1 Standings for 2008 and CIF-SS Coaches Poll for Div. 1 <http://www.hartbaseballstats.com/STANDX08.pdf>

Although Hart was getting runners on in almost every inning they were not able to capitalize and as the 6th inning approached with the score 0-0, It seemed the first mistake would win it for either team.

The big break came for Hart in the top of the 6th. Tyler Eyrich was safe at first when the shortstop bobbled a grounder, then threw the ball into the dugout and Eyrich was awarded 2nd base. The speedy Kyle Henningfield pinch ran. The extra base was immediately nullified when Danny Susdorf's sacrifice bunt attempt was hit right back at the pitcher and Henningfield was nailed at 3rd.

Devin Rodriguez then grounded a sharp single between short and third, Susdorf taking 2nd. Bryan Lucas hit a fly ball deep enough down the right field line to move Susdorf to 3rd. Then, always reliable Trevor Matern singled to deep short scoring Susdorf and Hart had the run that they worked so hard all game for.

Hart pitcher Mike Montgomery started and with a couple dozen scouts on hand with their radar guns was very sharp. He struck out 3 men in the first 2 innings and then conserving pitches began getting a lot of ground balls on which the Hart infielders made several spectacular plays. Hart 3rd baseman Jenzen Torres made several big league plays fielding sharp grounders and coming in on a bunt and making the difficult cross body throws to first it was something to behold.

Hart 2nd baseman, Spencer Moniz really shined. My score book shows 3 great plays on grounders that were headed to center field but Spencer didn't let anything past him and made those quick throws to first. It was great to see Spencer make these plays he was famous for in the VIBL and Winter League play, and now he had a huge audience so showcase his skills.

As usual Trevor Matern anchored the infield, making difficult plays look easy. Devin Rodriguez had 12 putouts and thankfully he is 6'2 or 6'3 now and growing, because he needed every one of those inches to save Hart's bacon in the bottom of the 7th.

Entering the bottom of the 7th, Hart held the slim 1-0 lead. The first batter was the ever dangerous Robbie Mouselli who hit what looked like a sure single just to the right of 2nd base. Spencer was on it as he slid on his right knee, then quickly got off the throw which sailed a bit but "D-Rod" (Devin Rodriguez) leaped high and did a toe dance as he came down on the first base bag.

So Hart had 1 precious out. Viking catcher, Tom Ferndino then lined his 2nd hit of the game, a hard single to right. Montgomery then battled Travis Amerian who kept fouling of several good pitches but laid off some close ones and worked Montgomery for a walk.

That was it for Montgomery. In came Junior pitching sensation Trevor Bauer. In his warm-ups Bauer threw a pitch to the backstop and did not look like he was comfortable with the mound. When his first 2 pitches to big Matt Higgins were way off the plate it looked like time to worry. On his 3rd pitch Bauer looked better. Then Higgins hit a little pop up that couldn't have been more than 14 feet off the ground and up the 1st base line in foul territory. The runner Higgins and Hart catcher Bryan Lucas were running side by side and at the last second Bryan made a desperation dive for the ball and HE CAUGHT IT!!!! 2 Out, 2 on. Bauer then faced R.J. Mundell and really cut loose a couple fast balls that had all the scouts who stayed on to the end in amazement as he was hitting 94 MPH on the speed guns. Bauer then threw a very nasty pitch that had Mundell completely frozen as the umpire "rang him up" with the strikeout pump motion.

So Hart had the all important victory which puts them in a flat footed tie with Valencia for the Foothill League lead at 7-1 and put both teams in a tie with identical overall records of 13-5.

So it all comes down to Fridays game 4/18/2008 at Hart at 3:15PM Trevor Bauer will pitch against Robbie Mouselli. I would expect a pretty good crowd for this game which will, if nothing else, put one team or the other in first place in the Foothill League.

Once again a Valencia pitcher throws a complete game against Hart. Last year Mouselli had 2 CG's against Hart and Corrales threw a CG shutout. On March 28 of this year Mouselli beat Hart 5-1.

Hart finally won a game against Valencia. Hart is now 22-16 in the series which began in 1996. Hart won the first 18 games but had been on the losing side in the last 6 games. Hart has won only 4 of the last 20 against the Vikes.

* Note * on the LA Times: Saugus beat Canyon 2-1 in 8 innings.

After the Hart game ended, I overheard someone saying that West Ranch and Golden Valley went into Extra Innings tied 2-2 and that WR had scored 5 runs in the top of the 8th to eventually win it 7-3.

Newspaper Links unfortunately don't stay good forever.

However I will post a The-Signal Link for the Hart 1-0 win over Valencia

Mainly there is a picture of Bryan Lucas making a full out stab just before he caught the ball off the bat of Matt Higgins in the 7th inning.
