HIGHLIGHTS of Game# 09-06: Hart 4 - West Torrance 5 (Easton Tourney G# 6)

#####

First Game Hart blows 4-0 lead in 7th loses 5-4 - For Box Score of the game scroll to the Top of this .PDF:

Hart pitcher Trevor Brown took a 3 hit 4-0 shutout into the 7th but then gave up a single followed by 2 wild pitches. After a walk a passed ball broke the shutout. 2 outs later a most unusual situation developed.

The West pitcher Trevor Neer who was DH'ed for in the 9th place batting order re-entered the game as a hitter in the 8th batting position and doubled making it 4-2.

While Hart coach Ozella was removing Trevor Brown for Tanner Sanchez. I notified the umpire that Neer batted out of turn but he said the coach had to question the call.

Coach Ozella then discussed the play with the umpires and other coach and was convinced that Neer was legally batting in the 8th place.

Problem is the next batter standing at the plate was the leadoff batter Rashad Johnson. So even if Neer was legal in the 8th spot the 9th place hitter never came to bat. Sanchez walked Johnson and the next batter Daniel Timmerman doubled and the score was tied 4-4.

Neer should have been called out for batting out of turn and the game should have ended with Hart winning 4-2. Or the next batter Johnson the leadoff batter should have been out for batting in the 9th spot. He should have been called out for batting out of turn ending the game and Hart was ahead at that time 4-3...

Water over the bridge however.

Hart didn't score in the bottom of the 7th despite a 1 out double by Devin Rodriguez. Christian Blumel making his Hart varsity debut got 2 quick fly outs in the 8th but then gave up a double and single to bring in the lead run for West Torrance. Hart failed to score in the bottom of the 8th and lost 5-4.

Earlier, Devin Rodriguez and Nolan Simons hit back to back homers to right in the 4th. For D-Rod it extended his hitting streak to 27 games.

In the 5th Trevor Brown singled in 2 runs to extend the lead to 4-0.

Going into the 7th Trevor Brown had an excellent pitching line of No runs, 3 hits, 7 strikeouts and 0 walks. But he got wild in that 7th.

Hart Injuries:

First, before the game, I saw Steve Susdorf (Hart-2004) who was the star of the Fresno State College World Series games and followed that up by hitting a grand slam homer in his first pro at bat. He recently had surgery on his left labrum tendon and will have to do extended spring training and will start with his minor league team at least a month late.

Cade Kreuter (Hart-2009) has a major dislocation of his shoulder and won't be able to even have a MRI for a month because it keeps popping out when they tried to do the exam.

Hart player C.J. Millar the 2nd batter for Hart in the West Torrance game fouled a ball off his big toe. After he popped out he had to be removed from the game.

Last word I heard it isn't broken but his situation will possibly be day to day
