HIGHLIGHTS of Game 10-03: Hart 9 - Chaminade 5 (Easton Tournament Game # 3)

Hart beats Chaminade 9-5. Plays AT Moorpark on Thursday at 3pm.

On a clear beautiful but VERY COLD, WINDY day at the Hart diamond, Hart ran wild on the bases today against Chaminade of West Hills.

Hart scored in all 6 innings they batted, and for the 2nd game in a row, they stole 6 bases.

The starting pitcher for Chaminade wild pitched in 3 runs early for Hart and if not for that, this game could have gone the other way.

Josh Wagner started for Hart and put Chaminade down for the first 2 inning with little problem.

Mathew Troupe started for Chaminade and immediately had to deal with the scrappy Daniel Dietz, who can make life miserable for opponent pitchers when he gets on base and he did as usual by getting hit by pitch right away.

Troupe tried to pick Dietz off but threw the ball into the Right field bull pen and the speedy Dietz made it all the way to 3rd.

Then he immediately threw a wild pitch while Josh Brown was batting and Dietz scored.

After 1 out Pat Valaika who was hitless in the first 2 games got "off the schnide" by looping a windblown double to center. Valaika then stole 3rd and scored on a wild pitch. Hart led 2-0.

In the 2nd, Hart pitcher Josh Wagner hit a ball down the left field line and again the wind played its tricks and Wagner cruised into 2nd with a double. James Scott Sacrificed Wagner to 3rd where he scored on a ground ball to the right side by Luke Persico. Hart led 3-0.

Wagner got into trouble in the 3rd. With 1 out, he gave up 3 consecutive singles loading the bases. Then, he almost escaped when Hart missed a 6-4-3 double play by an eyelash and a run scored but he got a strike out to end the inning with Hart leading 3-1.

Hart expanded the lead to 6-1, scoring 3 runs in the 3rd.

The pesky Dietz walked and was sacrificed to 2nd by Brown.

Valaika was intentionally walked. With Nolan Simons batting, the pitcher again uncorked a wild pitch to the backstop and Dietz never stopped running as he turned third and headed home. The catcher made a good throw to the pitcher covering the plate but the ball was dropped right on the plate and Dietz cleats hit the ball again almost to the backstop, Dietz was safe at home and Valaika was on 3rd.

With Simons still batting another wild Pitch scored Valaika.

Wagner had major problems in the 4th. The first 4 batters went single, double, single, single for 2 runs. Then an error and a groundout scored 2 more and the once 6-1 lead dwindled to a nervous 6-5 lead.

In the 4th, Hart faced an new pitcher in Ray Kim. Luke Persico led off with a nubber up the 1st base line that stayed fair and Persico had his first Hart varsity hit. J.T. Barnes sacrificed Persico to 2nd. Daniel Dietz grounded a ball headed to right field between 1st & the 2nd baseman, the 2nd baseman made a nice play to nip Dietz at first but Persico never stopped running from 2nd and he scored to make it 7-5.

Garrett Gooding relieved in the top of the 5th. He was very sharp, as he got a strikeout and 2 quick ground outs.

In the bottom of the Hart 5th, with 1 out Nolan Simons singled. The pitcher Kim tried to pick Simons off but threw the ball away into the bull pen and Simons went all the way to 3rd. With 2 out Garrett Gooding scored Simons with a sharp line drive single to center making it 8-5 Hart.

Gooding made quick work of Chaminade in the 6th with a strike out, ground out and fly out.

In the Hart 6th. Dietz lined out hard to center. Thomas Bilbo got his first Varsity at bat, pinch hitting for Josh Brown and walked. After a pop up, Nolan Simons slammed a long double to left center and Bilbo scored all the way from first.

In the top of the 9th, Gooding trying for a 9 out save, struck out the first batter. Then Drew Rosenberger singled hard to left.

Gooding then got a game ending "around the horn" 5-4-3 double play to end the game.

Hart will play at Moorpark on Thursday March 11, 2010 at 3pm.
