HIGHLIGHTS of Game# 10-06: Hart 2 - West Torrance 1 (1st. Game of Db1. Hdr.)

Hart wins first game of DH vs West Torrance 2-1

Hart played a great game in the opener at Hart.

The game went very fast and only took 1 hour 40 minutes.

Hart picked up 2 runs in the 2nd off West Torrance starting pitcher Kevin Peterson.

Steve Rosso making his first start at catcher, opened with a hard single to left, was sacrificed to 2nd by James

Scott. Luke Persico lined a single to left scoring Rosso.

J.T. Barnes then hit a perfect hit and run grounder behind the runner Persico for a single to right and Persico easily made it to 3rd.

Daniel Dietz then squeezed in Persico and Hart had 2 runs which turned out to be all they would get.

Petersen was able to keep Hart off the score board as he pitched a complete game, although Hart threatened in every inning.

Alex Tenorio started and went 5 innings, giving up a single run in the 4th.

He ended the 5th inning striking out the last 2 batters.

In the 5th there was an unusual play. Trevor Neer of West opened the inning by reaching on an error.

The next batter Kyle Grudnitski hit a little pop up that Tenorio might have had a chance to catch but at the same time as he was going to possibly catch the ball the batter ran into Tenorio and at the same time the baseball came down and hit the runner. All this possibly happened in foul territory.

The runner was also sent sprawling on the ground as Tenorio slammed into him.

The outcome was that the batter was hit by his own batted ball and the Catcher Russo is credited with the Putout.

Garrett Gooding pitched the 6th and got all 3 men with 2 strike outs.

Theo Stafford pitched the top of the 7th and with a 2-1 lead gave up an opening single.

They put in a swift pinch runner. Stafford then threw over to first several times while falling behind to the batter.

Finally the pick off throws succeeded as the pinch runner was caught off first.

Stafford then got a pop up to 2nd and a grounder to 3rd to end the game and give a Win to Tenorio (his first varsity win), and Stafford picked up his 2nd save.

Immediately after the game ended early everyone left for Birmingham High for the 2nd game.
