HIGHLIGHTS of Game# 10-18: Hart 8 - Valencia 3 (Foothill League Game # 7)

Hart beats league leader Valencia 8-3: Wagner pitches complete game, Valaika has 4 RBI's

On Monday the CIF-SS Coaches had voted Valencia 5th best team in Division 1. Then they knocked off Hart on Wednesday 7-5.

Hart finally put it all together today at Bud Murray Field as Josh Wagner pitched a complete game and Pat Valaika had a great day going 2 for 3 with a double, 4 RBI's and a walk.

Josh Wagner looked like he was in command right from the start.

In the first inning with 1 out, he gave up a hard line single to right to James Bonds.

He got 3 up 3 down innings in the 2nd. & 3rd.

A 2 out looper on the line to right in the 4th fell for a single. Otherwise he was sharp and mainly was not walking anyone.

For the Vikings, Quincy Quintero led off the 5th. with a high fly to right that carried and cleared the wall for a homer to make it 6-1 at the time.

So what got us to this 6-1 lead.

In the 1st, Nolan Simons hit a "Bullet" that somehow the pitcher Brennan Bernardino caught or he might have become a "bad medical statistic as the result of Aluminum Bat Injury".

Daniel Dietz beat out a grounder to short and Pat Valaika walked.

Dietz and Valaika tried a double steal, but Dietz was out stealing 3rd on the front end.

James Scott blooped a double down the right field line scoring Valaika for a 1-0 Hart lead.

In the 2nd., Josh Brown singled up the middle and Thomas Bilbo was hit by pitch. Luke Persico hit into a fielders choice forcing Brown at 3rd for out # 1.

With J.T. Barnes up Bernardino uncorked a wild pitch moving the runners to 2nd & 3rd. A Passed Ball scored Bilbo. Barnes walked. Nolan Simons then bounced a single off the 3rd baseman's glove scoring Persico.

That was it for Bernardino. In came Jake Roberge who last year shut Hart down cold after they took an 8-0 lead in a game which Hart eventually lost 17-10.

Box of that game:

<http://www.hartbaseballstats.com/HART0919.pdf>

This time Daniel Dietz immediately singled hard up the middle scoring Barnes, & sending Simons to 3rd., Hart led 4-0. Up came Pat Valaika. Dietz stole 2nd, then Valaika lined a sharp single to center easily scoring Simons and the speedy Dietz scored from 2nd, making it 6-0.

James Scott popped to short but Valaika stole 2nd., and took 3rd on a wild pitch. Kevin Bailey walked and stole 2nd. Hart was looking for more, but the inning finally came to and end as 10 men had come to bat with 5 scoring.

From that point for the next 3 innings Hart was unable to score. J.T. Barnes and Thomas Bilbo had infield singles but the game had settled into a pitchers duel with Hart holding a 6-0 lead until Quintero broke Wagner's shutout with his homer in the 5th..

In the top of the 6th., Shane Zeile singled up the middle. Hart then had Zeile picked off but a bad throw and Zeile was safe at 2nd. James Bonds then singled in Zeile to cut the lead to 6-2 with no outs.

A line drive to right by Trey Williams had extra bases written all over it but Thomas Bilbo made a circus catch for the first out. Then Wagner got what he needed most, the pitchers best friend, a Round the Horn double play as J.T. Barnes made a great pickup of the shot to the "hot corner" at 3rd and Daniel Dietz turned it at 2nd., making a perfect throw to first and Hart was still holding the lead at 6-2.

However, that feeling that Hart was now "hanging on", was creeping in, as Hart was completely shut down for the last 3 innings and the Vikings were threatening.

J.T. Barnes opened the 6th. and was hit by pitch, and stole 2nd. After a strikeout, Daniel Dietz hit a routine grounder to short but nothing is routine when Dietz puts a ball in play. The throw to first was clean but the first baseman simply dropped the ball in his haste to make sure Barnes wouldn't round third.

With men on 1st & 3rd, Pat Valaika hit a flare over 3rd and it landed just fair and scored Barnes easily and the speedy Dietz scored all the way from first and Hart had the 2 runs they lost in the 5th & 6th back and again had their 6 run lead at 8-2.

Is a 6 run lead any good???...

Not if you remember the 6 run lead with 2 out and NONE on, Top of the 7th we had on Corona Santiago back in 2003 in the 2nd Round of the 2003 playoffs, at Home!!!!...

Box of that game:

<http://www.hartbaseballstats.com/HART0328.pdf>

Josh Wagner who had not walked a batter the whole game, faced Kyle Eaton leading off the inning and was hit him with the first pitch.

A hard line drive by Quincy Quintero at 3rd baseman was snagged by J.T. Barnes. 1 Out.

With Brian Mundell up, a passed ball moved Eaton to 2nd.

Mundell grounded out to shortstop Pat Valaika, Eaton took 3rd but 2 out.

Alex Lightfoot singled to right scoring Eaton, with Lightfoot taking 2nd on an error in right.

Adam Tapia hit for the #9 hitter Michael Bratt and grounded a single to left in the 5-6 hole, sending Lightfoot to 3rd.

Up came the ever dangerous Shane Zeile who had 2 line outs and a single up the middle in his previous at bats. Looking ahead I noted that the Viking Super Star Trey Williams was the potential tying run only 1 batter away. But Zeile hit a towering fly that seemed to take forever to come down in left. When it finally settled into the mitt of Josh Brown, Hart had knocked off the Foothill League leading team 8-3.

Hart Varsity will next play at Hart on Wednesday (4-21-2010) vs. Saugus at 3:15pm.

Then Hart will play at Saugus on Friday (4-23-2010)

Those games are critical. Hart must win to keep our chances alive to make the playoffs!!!:
