HIGHLIGHTS of Game# 10-19: Hart 2 - Saugus 1 (Foothill League Game # 8)

Hart wins a great pitchers duel 2-1 over Saugus on Wednesday 4/21/2010

It was threatening rain all day and there was some drizzle in the early innings but in a very intense game at the Hart diamond today, Hart finally held on to a lead to win their 2nd straight Foothill League game by a 2-1 score.

The 3 main stars for Hart in this game were Tyler Glasnow, Garrett Gooding and Daniel Dietz. Dietz was 3 for 3 with a single, double and triple, scored a run on a balk. Glasnow started and pitched a fantastic game. He went 5.2 innings, gave up only 2 hits and struck out 11. Garrett Gooding relieved in the top of the 6th with 2 on, 2 out and got a strikeout.

In the top of the 7th, with Hart holding a slim 2-1 lead, Gooding started the inning and struck out the first batter, the #9 hitter Connor Stevenson, but the ball was in the dirt and squirted away from Hart catcher Kevin Bailey. Bailey recovered in time but his throw to first hit Stevenson in the back and he was safe. Leadoff batter Nick Lombardi sacrificed Stevenson to 2nd. James Threw struck out. The #3 hitter Michael Soucy flew out to center and Hart finally held onto a small lead they took into the last inning.

The Game started well for Glasnow as he got 2 strikeouts in each of the first 3 innings. In the 4th he ran into trouble by walking the leadoff batter Soucy. Cleanup hitter Brad Buchignani then rammed a long double into the left center field gap and Soucy scored. Glasnow then got an infield pop up and a strikeout before giving up a wild pitch and a walk to Justin Sheehan, putting runners on 1st & 3rd.

Then came the play that almost unraveled the inning and certainly upset the Saugus coaches, players & Saugus fans. A grounder to third baseman J.T. Barnes was fielded cleanly but his throw was to the home plate side of first. To me it seemed the Hart first baseman James Scott both caught the ball with his foot on the bag and also tagged the runner. Both umpires agreed but the entire Saugus team and especially coaches were out of the dugout onto the field protesting as well as the Saugus fans in the stands. But mainly the inning was over. Hart was out of the inning with only 1 run given up, and Hart was holding a 2-1 lead.

Glasnow struck out 2 more in the 5th, but in the 6th, after his 11th strikeout he hit Matthew Emerson. Then the lucky play of the game. A pop foul on the outfield side of the Hart dugout was chased by Hart 3rd baseman J.T. Barnes. He appeared to over run the ball as he ran into the fence but somehow bounced off the fence and made a super circus catch for the 2nd out. However a Wild Pitch and then again a walk to Sheehan brought in Garrett Gooding in relief.

Gooding was a bit wild with batter Scott Lombardi, who had 2 homers against Hart in the last meeting at Saugus, but on a 3-2 pitch, Lombardi took a called strike 3. Hart was out of the inning.

The Hart offense was mainly on the shoulders of Daniel Dietz. In the 1st inning, with 1 out Dietz slammed a long triple to the deepest part of the yard at the 391 sign. Then Saugus pitcher Tommy Kister, trying to keep an eye on Dietz balked, and Dietz scored.

In the 3rd, J.T. Barnes was safe when the pitcher misplayed his grounder. Nolan Simons singled to left and Dietz laid down such a perfect sacrifice bunt that there was no play on him as he beat it out for a single to load the bases with nobody out.

Saugus pitcher Tommy Kister was able to get a critical strike out but James Scott pushed a Squeeze Bunt to the right side scoring Barnes. Kevin Bailey was hit by a pitch to again load the bases, but Kister was able to get an easy fly to center to end the inning with only 1 run scoring. But Hart now had a 2-0 lead.

In the bottom of the 5th, Hart had another chance to blow the game open. With 1 out Daniel Dietz lined a double down the right field line. Pat Valaika was intentionally walked. After a grounder to the right side moved runners to 2nd and 3rd, Kevin Bailey was also intentionally walked to load the bases. Hart was unable to capitalize again as Kister got an easy grounder to 2nd, to foil another chance.

In the end it all worked out, as Hart gained an all important victory. It was cold throughout the game, but with the intensity of the game, I hardly noticed. For Tyler Glasnow it was his first victory as a Hart Varsity pitcher. Garrett Gooding recorded his 2nd save of the season.

Shortly after the game ended a light rain started. The 2 teams will again square off again on Friday at Saugus, at 3:15pm on 4/23/2010.

Hart is now 10-9 on the season and 4-4 in the Foothill League. There are 7 games remaining in Foothill League play for each team.
