HIGHLIGHTS of Game# 10-26: Hart 12 - Golden Valley 1 (Foothill League Game # 15)

Hart winds up in 3rd. Place with 12-1 win. Tenorio pitches 3 hitter, Hart has 3 homers:

A lot of Hart players chose the most important game of the season to have their best games of the season.

Alex Tenorio pitched a 3 hitter, 7 strikeouts. The only run off him was unearned.

Hart had only 1 homer all season but today they hit 3 and none were cheap.

Dallas Bacon only 3 games removed from the JV squad slammed a 2 run shot in the 5th. when the game was still close to make a 4-1 game into a 6-1 game.

Pat Valaika who has been pitched around all season finally got a pitch to his liking and hit an absolute ("No Doubt About It") Bomb to left and then in the 7th Josh Brown who has been having problems making contact finally slammed a 2 run shot to left and put the capper on a 12-1 outburst.

Gerry Gittelson of the Daily News e-mailed me his Blog column and to save me an hour I will copy and paste it Below..

By Gerry Gittelson: Special to the Daily News

CANYON COUNTRY - Needing a win in the season finale Friday to avoid missing the baseball playoffs for the first time since 1986, Hart High of Newhall responded, scoring four runs in the first inning in a 12-1 Foothill League victory at Golden Valley to seal a Southern Section Div. I playoff berth for the 25th consecutive year.

"We take a lot of pride in the streak," said Patrick Valaika, who hit his first home run of the season and added a triple, three runs and two RBIs.

Combined with Saugus' 12-7 loss to West Ranch that slipped the Centurions into fourth place, Hart (13-13, 7-8) finished third to secure the league's final automatic berth.

So fired up were the Indians that they hit three home runs after coming in with a total of just one in 25 games. Even Josh Brown, batting .219 with 16 strikeouts in 32 at-bats, got into the act, hitting a pinch-hit home run in the seventh, as Hart scored eight runs over the final three innings.

Hart left-hander Alex Tenorio (2-4), who had not won a game since March 16, came through with his best pitching performance of the season, going seven innings for the first time while limited Golden Valley (11-14, 6-9) to three hits and striking out seven.

Tenorio (2-4), a junior, retired eight of the final nine batters, four on strikes.

"We knew we had to win to make the playoffs, and I trusted my defense," Tenorio said. "They helped me out, and I just went inning by inning and tried to make my pitches."

Obviously, the win was a big relief for coach Jim Ozella, who posted occasional inspirational memos this past week asking if this was the year Hart wanted to see the playoff streak end.

"We come from a program that has a lot of tradition and a lot of pride," Ozella said. "It's a big deal, and I think the kids know that. They take pride in continuing the Hart tradition. I reminded them, but if you play for Hart, you know about the tradition."

Hart put itself in this position with four consecutive losses heading into the Golden Valley series. The pressure to win was equally important Wednesday when Hart prevailed 5-3 in the series opener.

"The whole week has been like the playoffs because we knew if we lost a game, it was one and done," Ozella said.

Ozella suspects Hart will open on the road against a league champion, but he and his players are not complaining one bit.

"I definitely think we're good enough to beat anyone," Valaika said. "This is a really good team."

~~~~~

I'll just add to Gerry Gittelson's article that after Hart got the quick 4 runs in the first inning, GV Grizzly pitcher Josh Smith then was able to hold Hart in check through the 4th inning.

The Grizzlies picked up a run in the 3rd. With 1 out Billy Fredrick reach first on an error and with 2 out Kamran Young slammed a hard hit ball to right that bounded all the way to the wall for a triple, scoring the only GV run.

Tenorio got a fly to center to end the inning, but the game was a close 4-1 affair until Bacon homered with a man on, Baggio Salvidar singled, James Scott tripled, and Luke Persico singled and Hart had 4 runs in with an 8-1 lead and the game seemed more secure as Alex Tenorio started striking out 4 straight batters. The last 2 in the 6th and the first 2 in the 7th.

West Ranch beat Saugus 12-7 to drop Saugus from 3rd to 4th and Hart jumped from 5th to 3rd.

Valencia beat Canyon 9-0

Hart Breaks Team Stolen Base Record

As an aside.

In this Golden Valley Game when Daniel Dietz stole 2nd base in the 2nd inning it broke the team stolen base record of 92. Hart still has a Wild Card game to play next Tuesday so the record could be further broken.

I will be updating all these records after the season ends.

#####

Who will Hart Play in the Wild Card Round of the playoffs??:

Hart will most likely have to win a Wild Card game on Tuesday:

To get an Idea check out the 2009 Playoff Brackets from Last year.:

<http://www.hartbaseballstats.com/CIF1PG09.pdf>

6 Team Leagues get 3 guaranteed Playoff spots

7 & 8 team leagues get 4 guaranteed Playoff spots.

A 4th place team in a 6 team league and a 5th place team in a 7 or 8 team league can make the playoffs if their record is .500 or better.

Note all the Wild Card games were between 3rd, 4th and Wild Card teams (indicated by an "@" sign).

Here is the final standings of the 10 Leagues in the CIF-SS Division 1 for 2010.

<http://www.hartbaseballstats.com/STAND110.pdf>

Try and see if you can predict the Wild Card teams for 2010.

The Brackets and Wild card games will be announced by the CIF-SS on Monday May 17, 2010 at 12:30PM
