HIGHLIGHTS of Game# 10-27: Hart 1 - St. John Bosco 3 (CIF Wild Card Playoff Gm.)

Hart Loses to St. John Bosco 3-1 in Wild Card Round of 2010 CIF-SS Playoffs: See Box Score of the game {Above}:

First My Comments on the game:

The 2 main batters Hart had problems with were the leadoff and # 2 batters.

The leadoff batter may or may not be a good hitter.

We will never know because this St. John Bosco team doesn't put up a roster on MaxPreps and certainly like several other Trinity League teams will never put their stats on MaxPreps.

There's a word for that but I won't say it.

Anyway Hart pitchers treated the Bosco leadoff batter Ryan Strachin like he was either Babe Ruth or Barry Bonds as he was walked all 4 times he appeared at the plate.

The # 2 batter Kyle Peralta was 3 for 3 and also was hit by pitch.

So that was 8 for 8 times on base for those 2 hitters. It's tough to overcome production at the top of the line up like that.

It seemed throughout the game Hart was being "blown out", but yet when you look at the final score and the line score, Hart was in this game until the last out.

Hart fielders were perfect in the field, the infield was stellar...

But the Hart hitters just could not solve the Bosco pitcher Koby Gauna

Gerry Gittelson has saved me over an hour of typing time by sending me his story on the game: He said it was OK to reprint it and I am including it.:

NEWHALL - On a dreary day at Hart High, the host Indians played like it.

Forced to win its final two baseball games of the regular season last week to qualify for the playoffs, Hart ran out of momentum Tuesday in a 3-1 loss to visiting St. John Bosco of Bellflower in a Southern Section Div. I wild-card game.

So, the good news was Hart (13-14) made it to the playoffs for the 24th consecutive year - just barely - but in the end, the Indians' continual inability to hit with power and to come through in clutch situations doomed them when it was most important.

Hart managed just four singles, and after scoring its only run in the fifth inning, the Indians did not threaten over the final two innings.

"It's a little disappointing," Hart's Patrick Valaika said. "We needed to win those last two games against Golden Valley to make the playoffs, and it would have been better to keep winning."

Baggio Salvidar, a freshman who played most of the season on the junior varsity, scored for Hart when he singled, advanced on sacrifices by James Scott and Luke Persico, then came home on J.T. Barnes' infield single.

That brought Hart to within one run, but St. John Bosco (14-12) scored another run in the sixth, and the way Koby Gauna was pitching, that was more than enough.

Gauna (7-3), a junior right-hander, pitched a complete game, giving up one earned run on four singles and no walks with five strikeouts.

"This was the first playoff game, and we wanted to do well," Gauna said. "Hart put the bat on the ball, but luckily my guys were there wherever they hit it. I knew Hart was a good baseball program and a baseball school, so we just left it all on the field like we had nothing to lose."

For the second consecutive season, Hart failed to win a playoff game by losing in the wild-card round.

"It's tough for everyone in the program, especially our seven seniors who really dedicated themselves," Hart coach Jim Ozella said. "It's not like we're disappointed, but we would have been happy to move on. But I have to give credit to St. John Bosco. That pitcher really got after us and put us on our heels."

Hart finished the season with just four home runs, three in the season finale last week.

"We tried to do what we could with what we had. We had some speed and some guys that could get on base," Ozella said. "We had some close games that we were on the wrong end of, and we made some strides through the season. We tried."

Hart's Garrett Gooding (2-3) pitched 1 2/3 innings, giving up two runs on two hits, three walks and two hit batters. Overall, three Hart pitchers limited St. John Bosco to six hits but issued five walks and four hit batters. It could have been worse, but St. John Bosco left 11 runners on base, seven in scoring position.

I heard Saugus lost So Just Valencia and West Ranch remain in the D-1 Playoffs for the Foothill League in the First Round starting on Thursday.

Hart Breaks Team Stolen Base Record

As an aside.

In the Golden Valley Game when Daniel Dietz stole 2nd base in the 2nd inning it broke the team stolen base record of 92.

Hart stole 2 more bases today and wound up with 95 steals for the year.

With the season now over, I will be updating all these records starting tomorrow.
