Hart loses 7-0 to Chatsworth: Plays at Hart Saturday vs Chaminade

Hart was up against a top class Left Handed pitcher named Aaron Brown and there were a couple of scouts with their Radar guns there to see him. While they were at it they also had the guns out on 6'7" Hart pitcher Tyler Glasnow who is committed to the University of Portland.

Tyler Glasnow started for Hart and the first batter, Chris Conlan slugged one to deep center but it was hauled in by Hart center fielder Josh Brown.

The next batter Aaron brown singled on a hard ground ball in the 3-4 hole. Steve Karkenny walked. After a pop out, Tim Han hit a high fly down the right field line at the wall that Hart right fielder Tommy Bilbo seemed to have a chance to make an outstanding catch but the ball bounced off his glove and was ruled as a double. With 2 out both runners were able to score.

Glasnow got a ground out to end the inning.

Aaron Brown of the Chatsworth Chancellors put Hart down in the 1st with 2 strikeouts.

After the first Tyler Glasnow was stellar for the next 4 innings, pitching to the minimum 12 batters.

He gave up a leadoff walk in the 3rd, then caught stealing.

He gave up a leadoff single in the 4th, then erased on a double play.

He got 2 strikeouts in the 5th.

The problem inning was the 6th. Leadoff batter Chris Conlan reached on an error at 3rd. Aaron Brown hit another hard single. A walk to Steve Karkenny loaded the bases. Another error at 3rd scored Conlan and the bases were still loaded. Then the play that sealed the fate of Hart occurred.

A grounder to short was fielded cleanly but for some reason tried to get the lead runner at home. The throw was bad and the catcher lost sight of the ball against the back stop. When the dust had settled, all 3 base runners had scored and the batter, Tim Han was standing on 3rd on the 3 base error. When Keefer Kofman singled up the middle to score the 5th run of the inning, that was it for Glasnow.

Bobby Stafford relieved and gave up a single to the catcher Hayden Tsutsui, but then got the next 3 batters.

In the top of the 7th, Rickey Torres made his Hart Varsity debut on the mound.

He struck out the first batter he faced, and then got a fly out to right. Tim Han the hitting star on the day for Chatsworth singled through the 5-6 hole but Torres got the final batter on another fly to right.

Tommy Bilbo was busy in right field making 5 putouts.

Hart only mustered 5 hits off Aaron Brown.

Their biggest chance against Aaron Brown came in the 2nd, down 2-0.

Dallas Bacon singled up the middle.

Alex Tenorio made a perfect push bunt to the right of the mound and beat it out.

Kevin Bailey put down a sacrifice bunt and was safe at first on an error by the 3rd baseman.

So Hart had the bases loaded and NO out.

However as strikeout and a double play ball 4-6-3, took Hart out of the inning without scoring.

Hart left 2 more in the 3rd. With 1 out Daniel Dietz easily beat out a nubber toward 3rd. The pitcher Brown, threw over to 1st several times, then Dietz stole anyway. Then for good measure Dietz stole 3rd. However, once again Hart failed to score. A fly out, then a walk to Luke Persico and Chatsworth was out of trouble on a fielder's choice.

Hart left 2 more men on base in the 4th on singles by Alex Tenorio and Steve Rosso, but Brown got out of the inning with a strikeout.

Hart had 2 more base runners in the 6th on walks by Tenorio and Baggio Saldivar but both were stranded on a strikeout.

Hart went down meekly in the 7th, the last out on another strikeout.

From the above you can see Hart left a lot of men on base, eight men to only 5 for Chatsworth, but Chatsworth had 7 runs to ZERO for Hart.

Aaron Brown struck out 9 Hart batters, 5 ended an inning and a double play ended another so you can see how this game went.

Valencia Beat Chaminade 2-0 and will meet Chatsworth for the Easton Southern California Showdown title on Saturday at a site TBA.

Since Chaminade had 3 home games and 1 on the road, Hart gets the home game, having played 2 Home & 2 on the road. Game time at Hart will be at 11:00AM vs Chaminade which has a lot of good players returning from last year, I think I heard they have something like 6 Division 1 signees.

Hart beat them last year in this tournament 9-5 at Hart.
