HIGHLIGHTS of Game# 11-14: Hart 5, Murrieta Valley 4 (OC Nissan Tourney G#2

Hart beats Murrieta Valley 5-4, with 5 run 6th.
Hart Plays in Semi Final vs Palm Desert tomorrow at 12 noon

Hart will play tomorrow, Tuesday in the semi Final game vs Palm Desert at El Modena at 12 Noon.
If they lost they would have played a night game at Windrow Park in Irvine.

If Hart can beat Palm Desert they will play in the OC Nissan tourney final game, Wednesday night at the Lower field at Windrow which is the home field of Woodbridge High in Irvine.

The other semi Finalist game tomorrow will be between Woodbridge and Beckman at the Lower Windrow Field at 6pm.

Palm Desert is the # 1 rated team in Division 4 and features their star player Ryan Garvey, son of ex Dodger great Steve Garvey.

Great game today: It got really nerve racking in the bottom of the 7th, as you will read later, but Hart was able to pull it out after a last second rally by Murrieta Valley.

The Murrieta valley Nighthawks basically had a bye into this game vs Hart as the result of getting to play Yorba Linda on Saturday.
Yorba Linda I'm told has no seniors playing yet so the Nighthawks saved their best pitcher and player Kyle Nielsen to start against Hart.

Hart was the visitor in this game.
Nielsen pitched very well through 5 innings. He had a little problem in the 4th when he gave up singles to Luke Persico and Dallas Bacon.

Alex Tenorio started for Hart. Alex pitched 2 innings finishing up the 3rd game victory over/at Thousand Oaks back on March 8th, but with the great Hart pitching so far this year his talents have been best used as a hitter, first baseman where he currently leads the Foothill League in batting.

Tenorio had a rough start in the 1st inning as the leadoff batter Chris Saunders reached on an error and the bases were loaded due to a single by Nielson and a walk.
But Tenorio escaped getting a strikeout of the Nighthawk catcher Gunnar Vanden Bossche.

Tenorio settled down in the 2nd and 3rd, but in the 4th he gave up a hard single to Jason Padlo who immediately scored on a long double by Vanden Bossche.
A soft single flared to right by Austin Cipres scored Vanden Bossche.
After a strikeout he hit the # 9 hitter and walked the lead off batter Saunders to load the bases.
Then with the # 2 batter Tyler Wade up Tenorio committed a balk scoring the 3rd run.

Tenorio struck out Wade to bring up the Nighthawks #1 hitter and pitcher Kyle Nielson.
Coach Jim Ozella then replaced Tenorio with Bobby Stafford who promptly got Nielson to pop to short.
So Hart was out of the inning but losing 3-0.

Josh Bendig who had only pitched 1 inning against West Torrance at Hart, started the 5th inning for Hart and put Murrieta Valley down giving up a only a leadoff single to Michael Jordan.

Hart came to bat in the 6th down 3-0 and Nielson was sailing along, but the Hart bats finally came alive:
Daniel Dietz who had opened the game with a hard single to center and then was caught stealing, beat out a single near the 2nd base bag.
Garrett Gooding beat out a single to short and Tommy Bilbo pinch ran.
The pitcher tried to pick off Dietz at 2nd but the 2nd baseman let the throw get away & runners moved up to 2nd & 3rd
Luke Persico singled to center scoring both Dietz and Bilbo making the score 3-2 Hart still behind.
Alex Tenorio then hit a long triple to right center, Persico scored, tying the game at 3-3.
After a fly to short center, Connor O'Brien Lined a hard single to center, scoring Tenorio. Hart led 4-3.
Baggio Saldivar then singled to center. A wild pitch moved O'Brien and Saldivar to 2nd & 3rd.
After a strikeout, Tyler Glasnow pinch hit in the # 9 slot and hit a nubber to 3rd that only the pitcher Nielson could get to and he had no play as O'Brien scored the 5th run in the inning.
So on 7 hits in the 6th Hart now led 5-3.

Josh Bendig was now the pitcher of record to get the win.
Hart brought in Ricky Torres to pitch the bottom of the 6th and got a 3 up 3 down inning.

Then in the bottom of the 7th, Ricky Torres took the mound again to hopefully get a 2 inning save and immediately got 2 quick outs, including a long fly to center by Nielson.
Then the cleanup hitter, Michael Jordon crushed a line drive to center that was easily over the wall but amazingly the umpires signaled the ball had bounced over the wall for a ground rule double.

So Jordan had to go back to 2nd, but he quickly scored on a single through the 5-6 hole by Jason Padlo and when Hart tried to get the runner Jordan who scored easily, Padlo was able to take 2nd and it looked to be not a good situation for Hart.
The very good hitter Gunnar Vanden Bossche was up, still 2 out.
Then a good thing happened for Hart.
Vanden Bossche popped the ball up and best of all it was foul but it was right in front of the Murrieta Valley dugout.

Dallas Bacon was not intimidated however and gathered it in and Hart had the victory.
Hart is now 12-2 on the season.
They have never lost to Murrieta Valley and are now 4-0 against them, including the playoff game in 2004.
