Hart Varsity beats Canyon 13-4 at Canyon, play again at Hart on Friday 4/29/2011

Box Score: <http://www.hartbaseballstats.com/HART1121.pdf>

Today Hart exploded for 5 in the 5th and 6 in the 6th to have their biggest run production game this season. Hart scored 12 runs against Moorpark in the 2nd game of the season at Moorpark when they won 12-2.

Like a lot of games in 2011 this looked like Hart was going to be in for a real tough task.

As you can see in the above Box Score Hart had only 9 hits to go with their 13 runs.

The game was featured by a total of 9 Hit Batters. 6 for Hart and 3 for Canyon.

In fact the 6 Hit Batters eventually resulted in 4 runs scored and 2 RBI's on Hit Batters by Baggio Saldivar in the 5th and Kevin Bailey in the 6th.

Baggio Saldivar in 4 plate appearances didn't have an official at bat as he was hit by pitch 2 times, walked once and had a nice Sacrifice.

Steve Rosso was 2 for 2 with 4 RBI's on a Double, Single, Hit by pitch, and Sacrifice.

Luke Persico had 3 hits.

A 2 out double by Dallas Bacon was wasted in the 1st. That was Bacon's 10th double of the season which puts him in the top 20 for a single season. Billy Susdorf holds the record with 19 in 2001:

<http://www.hartbaseballstats.com/HARTSEBA.pdf>

Scroll to Page 2 top of page in the Middle: His name won't be placed until seasons end but you can see he could move up a few more places.

In the 2nd Hart had the bases loaded but Luke Persico who had singled was out at the plate on a fielders choice.

In the 3rd Hart finally pushed across a run. With 1 out Garrett Gooding walked, Josh Brown pinch ran and scored on a long double to right center by Alex Tenorio. Then Luke Persico singled sharply to center, unfortunately Tenorio was gunned down at the plate on a nice throw by Canyon center fielder Grant Westerson.

Not a happy scene: 2 Hart runners out at the plate in the early innings when the game was very close.

Hart made it 2-0 in the 4th. Baggio Saldivar was hit by pitch, stole 2nd, was sacrificed to 3rd by Steve Rosso. The Canyon Starting pitcher Nick Diaz tried to pick Saldivar off 3rd and threw the ball away, Baggio scored easily.

Meanwhile, as I said things looked tough in the first 4 innings for Hart starting pitcher Tyler Glasnow.

In the first, leadoff batter Patrick Roxbury hit a hard line drive single to right. Glasnow then got wild walking and then hitting a batter to load the bases, but got and nice grounder to first to end the inning.

Glasnow was back in trouble in the 2nd hitting the leadoff batter Harry Bennett, but got 2 strikeouts and a comebaker to the mound to get out of further trouble.

In the 3rd, after opening with a strike out he walked 2 batters, but a fly out and strikeout got him out of that trouble.

In the bottom of the fourth he got 2 quick easy outs but walked the 9th place hitter Blake Reagan. Pat Roxbury then hit a double down the right field line scoring Reagan from first. That cut Harts lead to 2-1.

In the top of the 5th for Hart, Daniel Dietz opened with one of his patented Hit by Pitches. From that point he created his usual chaos, scoring from 2nd on a single by Dallas Bacon. The inning was capped by a 2 run double by Steve Rosso, as Hart batted around in the inning scoring 5 runs.

In the 6th inning for Hart Dietz led off with another hit by pitch and again caused chaos as he got the pitcher to throw the ball away trying to pick him off and wound up on 3rd. A single by Gooding, walk to Bacon and a walk to Alex Tenorio with the bases loaded scored Dietz.

Canyon used up 3 pitchers to try and stem the tide and before Kyle Pressman was called in to pitch, 11 men came to the plate and Hart scored 6 runs to take a 13-1 lead.

Ricky Torres then relieved Glasnow in the 6th and got 2 quick fly outs to right, then an single off his glove, before he ended the inning with a strike out.

In the bottom of the 7th, Erik Vogel came in to protect the 13-1 lead. Canyon batters were just trying to get on and were mildly successful just trying to poke at the ball and got 4 hits and 3 runs but the final outcome was never in doubt as Hart prevailed 13-4.

As said above on Friday Hart will host the Canyon Cowboys on Friday at 3:15pm

The-Signal had a reporter at the game named Trevor Sojka: Here is his story on the game:

It seemed like just of a matter of time before the Hart baseball team was going to explode in Wednesday's game against Canyon.

After four innings of close baseball, the Indians offense broke through for a five-run fifth and quickly ran away from the Cowboys in a 13-4 victory at Canyon High.

"In the first few innings we had a few good at-bats, but it was just a matter of time and getting our timing down in the later innings," said Hart head coach Jim Ozella.

The first four innings were a combination of sloppy pitching and spectacular defensive plays, with Hart holding a 2-1 edge.

With two put-outs at home plate in the first three innings, Canyon (9-13, 4-6) kept the score close and gave starting pitcher Nick Diaz something to work with.

When he ran out of gas in the fifth, Hart (16-5, 7-3) took advantage.

"It was a pretty good ballgame the first few innings until it got away," said Canyon assistant head coach Scott Willis.

The game got away when Hart racked up three hits and five runs in the fifth to chase Diaz and get to the bullpen.

Daniel Dietz led off the inning for Hart by getting hit by a pitch, and he scored two batters later when Dallas Bacon ripped 3-2 pitch to left field.

After a walk to Alex Tenorio, Diaz was pulled and the floodgates opened. Four batters later, Steve Russo came up to bat with runners on the corners.

Russo promptly delivered a two-run double to put the Indians up 7-1.

"I was just focused on sitting back, like my coach was telling me, and waiting for a fastball," Russo said. "I got a first-pitch fastball and I drove it."

With the hit, the Indians stretched their lead and never looked back. Hart added six more runs in the sixth inning to put the game away.

"Today was our day," Ozella said. "We got to take advantage of some things and we got into their bullpen and really took advantage of it."

Hart starting pitcher Tyler Glasnow only gave up two hits in five innings, but he walked four and hit two batters in an uncharacteristic performance.

"I didn't come out with the same intensity I usually do," Glasnow said. "It was just one of those days. I have a pretty strong offense, though, so I just threw strikes and trusted them."
