It was a nice day at the Grizzly den today. The wind was blowing slightly from what we could feel on the ground, but as usual you could see the fielders were having a hard time especially pop ups on the infield and there were plenty of them especially by the Hart batters.

Scott Barlow started for Golden Valley and he had a nice easy time in the first and got a strikeout to open the second.

Luke Persico beat out a single to deep short. After a fly to right by Baggio Saldivar it looked like Barlow was going to have another easy inning, but Kevin Bailey blooped a single to center sending Persico to 3rd.

Steve Rosso was hit by pitch loading the bases.

Tommy Bilbo then coaxed a walk with the bases loaded scoring Persico.

Daniel Dietz also walked scoring Bailey. Hart led 2-0.

Garrett Gooding then slammed a shot to center and the centerfielder at first took a couple of steps in and then realized it was over his head and tripped and fell and it was a bases clearing 3 run double for Gooding.

Barlow then got a pop to end the inning. Hart led 5-0.

Barlow struck out the side in the 3rd but walked 2 and he didn't look near as sharp as he was in the first.

John Mark Niednagel came in relief in the 4th for the Grizzlies.

First batter was Tommy Bilbo who slammed a long drive to center but the center fielder hauled it in at the wall.

Daniel Dietz then hit a long double into the gap in right center, took 3rd on a fielders choice to 2nd by Gooding and with Dallas Bacon up scored on a wild pitch to make it 6-0 Hart.

Hart threatened in the next 2 innings against Niednagle but left men in scoring position.

In the 5th, with 1 out Persico again singled to deep short, stole 2nd & 3rd but was left stranded.

Finally Hart broke through in the top of the 7th after the Grizzlies had halved the lead in the 6th, with 3 runs to make it 6-2.

Dallas Bacon hit a long homer to right center to give Hart a 4 run cushion.

It was Bacon's first homer of the year. He hit one here at GV last year in the final regular season game when Hart hit 3 homers.

Box of that game in 2010: <http://www.hartbaseballstats.com/HART1026.pdf>

For Hart, Tyler Glasnow started and looked pretty good in the first inning striking out 2.

With a 5 run lead in the 2nd inning (which has not been his best inning this year), he gave up a leadoff single to Josh Smith, who then stole 2nd and took 3rd on a throwing error by Hart catcher Steve Rosso.

Glasnow walked Adrian Carballo to put men on 1st and 3rd with None Out.

However Glasnow straightened himself out with 2 strikeouts and a grounder to short.

Tyler got them 3 up, 3 down in the 3rd with 1 strikeout.

In the 4th a leadoff walk and a 2 out single by Tanner Swire went for naught.

Glasnow gave up a leadoff walk in the 5th but a strikeout and a very nifty snag of a shot headed down the line over first base by Hart first baseman Alex Tenorio was turned into a double play as Tenorio tagged the first base bag and threw to short stop Luke Persico for a tag of the runner at 2nd for a neat 3u.-3-6 double play.

Tanner Swire then singled up the middle scoring Fredrick to make it 6-1.

Hart coach Jim Ozella then went to the bull pen and brought in Ricky Torres.

Torres got Josh Lamparriello, pinch hitting for Rocky Sherwood to hit a hard shot to Hart 3rd baseman Dallas Bacon who stepped on 3rd but his throw to first was late and Alvarez scored, so the score was 6-2 with 2 out, men on 1st and 2nd.

Riley Sherwood singled to right scoring Swire and it was 6-3.

Torres then struck out 9th place batter Chris Galvez who was hitting .393 at the start of the game.

But Golden Valley had cut the score in half with 5 hits and Hart's lead was only 6-3.

As said, Dallas Bacon hit the long homer for Hart in the top of the 7th to get us a 4 run cushion.

In the bottom of the 7th with the score 7-3, Hart brought in Bobby Stafford to try and get the game finished.

The first batter Anthony San Miguel slammed a deep drive to right center that had extra bases written all over it, but somehow Tommy Bilbo made a super catch on it. I hope Gordon Gooding has that on Video tape, as it was one of the better catches we have seen all year.

With that out of the way, Bobby Stafford easily struck out the last 2 batters.

Hart had the victory 7-3

Hart will play Golden Valley at Hart on Friday at 3:15pm.

It will be Senior Appreciation Day and the final regular season game.

I hope we get a good crowd to cheer Hart on a chance to go to the playoffs with 20 wins.

For one of the few times this year, The-Signal didn't have a reporter at the game but did a phone interview for the regular Print Edition, so I won't have a copy-paste of the Web Edition on my Recap on Page 3 of the Boxscore which again is: - <http://www.hartbaseballstats.com/HART1125.pdf>
