Seven returning lettermen constitute the nucleus of the Hart High Varsity Baseball team, and it is this nucleus around which the team strategy will be built during the 1969 Baseball season.

Seniors Abby Nocchiolo, Dean Raynor, Steve Gallion, Bob Town, Buddy Baxter, Bill Staats, and Jim Curtis, along with juniors Pete Calzia and Ruben Franco, portend a successful and exciting season for Coach Koentopp's Varsity Baseball team. They will have to be an aggressive, hustling outfit, according to Coach Koentopp, in order to take advantage of other teams weaknesses and mistakes.

The pre-season record is 6-2 with league baseball games twice a week and a tournament during Easter vacation. As the Tomahawk goes to press, the Varsity Indians promise a successful and fulfilling season in Frontier League Competition.
